I bought this book when I was in Spain to learn a bit about Los Angeles, the Metro System, the people, the places, and what to expect as a whole. I am like many others who REALLY ENJOY Lonely Planet books and make them my first choice when selecting a guide book. But, this edition needs to be redone.

Lonely Planet is usually one of the best travel guides one can find, but the LA edition proved uninspired for me during a Nov 2012 week in LA. It did not help me decide what to visit or how to get there, and LA County is hard to navigate. The AAA tour book was far better and easier to carry if the hotel section is torn out.
